Traditions . . .

Our Alma Mater is Eastern. We have come here, all of us different, for different reasons. We will leave as we have come, un-alike, with different backgrounds, feelings, experiences. But while here, certain things have happened to all of us. These common experiences hold us together as a student body. These are the things which have made us alike for a while. These things are traditions. Most of the traditions are good, some are bad, but they are experiences which every student at Eastern has had, and which all future ones will have. They make our Alma Mater.

Seniors

Bernie Kotula, a 6-8, 205 pound center, is from Ambridge, Pa. He has seen action for the Maroons since his sophomore year, and was starting center this year. He proved himself a capable man under the boards.

Dale Moore, a 6-5, 200 pound forward from Inez, has made himself invaluable to the Maroons with both his fierce rebounding and his scoring punch. He has played as either center or forward in every Eastern game in the last two years and missed only one in his sophomore year.

Ray Vencill, a 6-1, 170 pound guard from Elizabethtown, has been plagued with physical injuries since his sophomore year. When he has been able to play, he has proved himself one of the best guards on the Southern circuit. His remarkable dribbling skill has gotten Eastern out of many tight places.

Larry Wood, a 6-3, 190 pound guard from Brooksville, has led the Maroons in all departments during his three years of varsity play. He has been recognized as one of the finest guards in the nation. His scoring skill and play-making ability have aided the Maroons in every ball game in the last three years.
